- Consul: Legion Delegatus

Warlord: If Consul-Delegatus Skorr is the army's Warlord and his owning player has chosen to take a Strategic Trait from the Choosing Your Army section of the Warhammer 40,000 rulebook, they may choose a Trait rather than rolling randomly. Other types of Warlord Trait are rolled for as normal.

Autilon Skorr was Consul-Delegatus of the Alpha Legion, and was listed in the roll of honour of the Great Crusade's Council of War no less than seven times before the outbreak of the Horus Heresy, for he was frequently dispatched by his Legion's high command to demand Compliance of newly discovered worlds in the name of the Imperium. After the outbreak of the Heresy, he furthered the Warmaster's campaign of 'Dark Compliance' by many bloody handed deeds. At Epsilon-Stranivar IX, the Shattered Legions would be all that stood between Skorr and greater victories.

NEW CONSUL TYPE: LEGION DELEGATUS: 25 POINTS

Any Legion Centurion may be upgraded to a Legion Delegatus in the same way as any other type of Consul.

A Legion Delegatus is a mid-ranking Legion officer, such as a Centurion, tasked with a specific mission by Legion high command and formally deputised to act in all matters with the full weight of their commander's authority. As such, they can mobilise the Legion's resources to the full, deploy its assets and, if performing a mission of vital strategic worth, assemble a strike force of chosen warriors.

Special Rules

Rite of Command: This Consul has the Master of the Legion special rule (see the Legion Praetor entry in the Legiones Astartes Crusade Army list) and may take a Legion Command Squad. In addition, the Consul must always be the army's Warlord, unless their Legion's Primarch is also taken.

NEW RITE OF WAR: CHOSEN DUTY

The following Rite of War can be used by a Legion Delegatus being fielded as the army's Warlord. It represents the officer selecting a small but potent strike force of chosen warriors for the prosecution of a specific objective. It can be used in any mission, but is particularly appropriate for use in smaller scale games, such as the Zone Mortalis missions provided in The Horus Heresy Books One and Three, and the Strategic Raids missions in Book Four.

Effects

- Legion Veteran squads are Troops choices in this army, and at least two must be taken.
- If a Legion Delegatus who is a Warlord survives the mission, their side gains an additional Victory point where these are in use. If the Legion Delegatus Warlord is slain, the enemy gains an additional Victory point (over and above any they would earn from the Slay the Warlord Secondary Objective).

Limitations

- A Legion Praetor or Lord of War may not be taken in a Primary Detachment with a Consul-Delegatus as its Warlord. Allied Force Detachments may also not be taken with this army.

Autilon Skorr may be taken as an HQ choice in a Legiones Astartes Alpha Legion army created using a Space Marine Crusade army list.

A Consul type Legion Delegatus may be taken as an upgrade to a Centurion in any army created using a Space Marine Crusade army list.
